Re: Previcox
Docket No. 2006E-0034

The Honorable Jon Dudas
Under Secretary of Commerce for Intellectual Property and Director of the United States Patent and Trademark Office
Box Pat. Ext.
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Director Dudas:

This is in regard to the application for patent term extension for U.S. Patent No. 5,981,576 filed by Merck Frosst Canada & Company under 35 U.S.C. § 156. The animal drug product claimed by the patent is Previcox (firocoxib), which was assigned NADA No. 141-230.

A review of the Food and Drug Administration's official records indicates that this product was subject to a regulatory review period before its commercial marketing or use, as required under 35 U.S.C. § 156(a)(4). Our records also indicate that it represents the first permitted commercial marketing or use of the product, as defined under 35 U.S.C. § 156(f)(1), and interpreted by the courts in Glaxo Operations UK Ltd. v. Quigg, 706 F. Supp. 1224 (E.D. Va. 1989), aff'd, 894 F.2d 392 (Fed. Cir. 1990).

The NADA was approved on July 21, 2004, which makes the submission of the patent term extension application on September 16, 2004, timely within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. § 156(d)(

Should you conclude that the subject patent is eligible for patent term extension, please advise us accordingly. As required by 35 U.S.C. § 156(d)(2)(A) we will then determine the applicable regulatory review period, publish the determination in the Federal Register, and notify you of our determination.

Please let me know if we can be of further assistance.

Sincerely,

Jane A. Axelrad
